

RESULT OF GREAT BATTLE IN THE BALANCE

AT THE RUSSIAN FRONT, Monday, October 10—By messenger to Mukden, Tuesday, October 11; Delayed in transmission—The artillery duel is progressing on the Russian left, twenty-seven miles southeast of Mukden, while the fighting at Yentai rages with terrible bitterness. The Japanese are essaying a counter attack. The result is in the balance. Russian reinforcements are coming up rapidly.

TOKIO, October 12, 8 p. m.—A battle, south of Mukden, raged uninterruptedly all of Tuesday and into the night. It was continued today.

The results have not been decisive.

The Russians have a heavy force on the Japanese right, toward the Taitse river, but it is believed that the Japanese have checked the Russian turning movement.

RUSSIANS KEEP ON GOING.

Skirmishers Engage in Some Lively Fighting in Field.

TOKIO, October 12 (6:30 p. m.)—A batch of reports covering the fighting of October 10, published this evening, records serious conflicts at various points along the Japanese front.

DESPERATE STRUGGLE.

There was a desperate struggle in the neighborhood of Bensih, where the Russians crossed the Taitse river, and where the Japanese endeavored to entrap the invaders.

The Hsienchuang garrison vigorously attacked and repulsed the Russians, possibly relieving the pressure on the Japanese line of communications.

The headquarters of the Manchurian army, in reporting conditions on the night of October 10, telegraphs as follows:

"The enemy with a body of infantry of considerable strength is holding an eminence west of Sanchiatu.

"A powerful column of the enemy is advancing. It is in the Yeihou valley near Shatoku. A regiment of Russians is fortifying the ridges.

"Another body of Russians, with artillery, has been seen advancing toward Upper and Lower Luohos.

TAKEN BY ENEMY.

"A line of eminences east of Bensih was taken by the enemy, as were ridges east of the roadway between Huolinchia and Bensih by a night attack. The next morning, under cover of a mist, our force succeeded in retaking the line of eminences east of Bensih and another line of ridges between Huolinchia and Bensih.

"Before the right column of the right army the enemy's artillery is holding the whole line, against which fighting is progressing.

THE ATTACK.

"At 11 o'clock this morning, the enemy's cavalry attempted to attack one eminence east of Huolinchia, but they were driven back after a hand to hand fight. The enemy left numerous killed and retreated to the base of the eminence.

"The reports received up to the evening of October 10 show that the enemy in the vicinity of Bensih appears to have been reinforced, but our troops are holding their position well.

JAPANESE MAKE NEW MOVE

Claim to Have Russian Infantry in a Trap.

TOKIO, October 12 (3:30 p. m.)—A general Japanese advance along a broad front towards Mukden is progressing.

A brigade of Russian infantry with 2000 cavalry and two guns, having the object of striking General Kuroki's flank, crossed the Taitse river October 9. The Japanese cut off the retreat of this force and possibly will capture it.

The Russians are attacking Sienchuang, thirty miles northeast of Saimatz (southeast of Liao Yang and almost due north of Feng Wang Cheng) evidently with the object of cutting off Japanese communications with the Yalu river.

DESPERATE FIGHT

ST. PETERSBURG, October 12.—General Sakharoff, telegraphing yesterday evening, confirms the reports of desperate fighting north of Yentai, where the heights were alternately held by the Russian and Japanese.

General Danieloff, who succeeded General Trousseff and Romanoff in command of the Sixth Siberian Rifles division, was wounded in the leg but did not relinquish his command.

The losses are not stated and according to the latest advices the battle is continuing to-day.

JAPS GAINING

TOKIO, October 12 (6 p. m.)—Field Marshal Oyama reports that there was fighting along the entire front October 10, that the Japanese are gaining ground and that the Russian attack on Sienchuang (Sian Chan) on the Hun river, thirty-five miles southwest of Mukden, was repulsed.

CZAREVITCH STAKES WON BY WARGRAVE

LONDON, October 12.—At the Newmarket meeting to-day the Czarevitch stakes of twenty-five sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, was won by Wargrave. Rondeau was second and War Wolf third. Twenty horses started.

ACID FOR RIVAL'S FACE.

Terrible Revenge of a Wronged Woman in Missouri.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., October 12.—Mrs. Hallet Snow dashed a glassful of carbolic acid into the face of Mrs. Mary Punel, Mrs. Bunei's face, neck and chest were burned black and she probably will lose her eyesight.

Mrs. Snow was arrested.

Both of the women are young.

Mrs. Bunei was one of the heirs of the famous Bunei estate, which was in litigation in the courts of this country and France for twenty years.

Mrs. Snow recently filed suit for damages against Mrs. Bunei, alleging that the defendant had alienated her husband's affections.

FREIGHT TRAIN DERAILED.

CONDUCTOR IS INJURED IN THE MONTANA WRECK.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Freight train No. 219 was derailed at Appleton, in the Sierra Nevada mountains, at midnight last night.

Fortunately, the accident resulted without loss of life, though the conductor and the brakeman were more or less injured.

No. 219 was east-bound and had two locomotives as well as two cabooses. One of the two cabooses left the track, and the cause is not as yet known to Division Superintendent Laws.

The engineers were Walters and Applegate, and the conductor was P. L. Campbell and brakeman B. J. Kelley. Campbell is bruised about the head and face, and Kelly has his back sprained, and is also lacerated about the head and face.

It is thought the first caboose left the track, and in its derailment dragged the other caboose off the line, which fell some twenty-five feet down the embankment.

The other cars were uninjured, and the track was cleared at 7:25 this morning. A remarkable feature of the accident is that the caboose that went down the embankment escaped damage.

The injured trainmen were taken to the railroad hospital at Sacramento.

RUSSIA'S BALTIC FLEET MAY GO TO FAR EAST

PARIS, October 12.—Officers here express the belief that the Russian Baltic fleet will actually start for the Far East next Friday or Saturday. This is significant, as the French officials heretofore have discredited all reports that the fleet was about to leave Russian waters.

AN EVIDENCE OF STRENGTH.

CHINESE PRISONERS BEING LED OFF TO BE EXECUTED.

THE SITUATION AT THE FRONT.

THE ARMIES OF KUROPATKIN AND OYAMA ARE AGAIN IN BATTLE, ON GROUND, WHICH AS FAR AS CAN BE DETERMINED FROM ADVICES FROM THE FRONT, LIES GENERALLY TO THE NORTH AND EAST OF THE SCENE OF THE BATTLE OF LIAOYANG. BEGINNING WITH THE RUSSIAN BLOW AT BENTSIPUTZE ON THE NINTH, THE ENGAGEMENT SPREAD ON TODAY, BOTH TOKIO AND ST. PETERSBURG REPORTING THAT IT IS RAGING ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT. SO FAR THE RESULTS HAVE NOT BEEN DECISIVE.

IT IS EVIDENT THAT KUROPATKIN IS TRANSFERRING THE WEIGHT OF HIS ATTACK TO THE JAPANESE RIGHT WHICH RESTS ON THE TAITSE RIVER EAST OF THE YENTAI MINES.

NORTH OF YEN'AI THE FIGHTING IS REPORTED TO BE OF THE MOST DESPERATE CHARACTER, THE POSITIONS CONSTANTLY CHANGING HANDS AND THE LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES BEING HEAVY.

TOKIO REPORTS THAT THE BATTLE RAGED UNINTERRUPTEDLY ALL DAY YESTERDAY AND INTO THE NIGHT AND THAT IT IS BELIEVED THAT THE RUSSIAN TURNING MOVEMENT WAS CHECKED. OYAMA REPORTS THAT HE IS GAINING GROUND AND THAT THE RUSSIAN ATTACK ON FIENCHANG TO CUT THE JAPANESE COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE YALU RIVER WAS REPULSED.

AT THE CLOSE OF TODAY'S FIGHTING KUROPATKIN REPORTED TO THE WAR OFFICE THAT THE JAPANESE WERE OFFERING A STUBBORN RESISTANCE AND HAD EVEN ADVANCED THEIR POSITIONS.

BATTLE OF SCHILI RIVER STILL IN PROGRESS.

Fighting is Said to Be of the Most Desperate Character.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 12, 5:52 p. m.—Still no definite news has been received at the war office up to this time, of the battle of Schili river, reaching to the conclusion that all the indications show it was still in progress this morning. The latest reports indicate that the fighting there is of much larger proportions than was supposed yesterday. The battle has now raged uninterruptedly for three days and nights and the Russians have been unable to make further headway since the check which they sustained October 10, owing to the determined resistance of the Japanese.

The latest war office information says the fighting is of a most desperate character. The positions are constantly changing hands. The Russians are inflicting and sustaining heavy losses. A mention of the Tomsk regiment as being the worst sufferer, indicates that the Second Siberian division of General Gavloff's corps is engaged.

An official report from General Danieloff, commanding the Sixth Siberian Rifle division, who is wounded, shows that General Stakeberg's corps, is also in the fight. If the full two corps are involved about 50,000 Russians are engaged. The late news also confirms the Associated Press dispatches, indicating that Kuropatkin is transferring the weight of his blow to the Japanese right.

The extreme Russian left extended to the Taitse river, where it bends northward to forty miles above Liao Yang. The line includes the villages of Uitzu and Tantzlaputzy, three miles south of Bentslaputze and then bends northward of Shilihedzy, on the Upper Schili, a few miles northwest of the Yentai mines.

There is no evidence yet or mention in official dispatches of operations west of the railroad. Intense public interest is manifested in the fight at the front. Everybody is awaiting eagerly news of definite results. Great tension and some nervousness is displayed at the war office.

RIOTING CHICAGO STREETS

Strikers Are Repulsed by Squad of Policemen.

CHICAGO, October 12.—Rioting occurred today in connection with a strike of baggage wagon drivers employed by the Frank E. Scott Transfer Company.

Attacks on wagons were repulsed by a squad of policemen at the barns of the company in Wabash avenue and by a force of private detectives employed to patrol the district.

Attempts to send out wagons met with determined resistance by pickets, aided by sympathetic teamsters. As soon as the wagons got a few blocks away the drivers were stoned and attempts made to cut the horses' traces.

SHOT THE WOMAN HE LOVED

She Had Threatened to Return to Her Husband.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Fred Averill, a cook, fired four bullets into the body of Lulu Lockwood, as she lay asleep to-day in a Mason street lodging-house, inflicting wounds which probably will prove fatal.

He then shot himself through the head and is dying.

The woman has made a statement saying that jealousy was the cause of the shooting, as she had told Averill she was going to return to her husband from whom she was separated.

TELLS HER TO DIE.

Mrs. Lockwood was placed first on the operating table and when Averill saw that she was not dying, he hissed at her from the stretcher where he lay:

"Die, you —; die."

The surgeons found that the woman was shot twice through the left shoulder, the bullets having pierced the lung. One bullet was found in the back. She was shot through the middle finger of the right hand in grabbing the revolver while Averill was trying to take her life, and again through the mouth. The bullet shattered her teeth, but came out through the gum. Averill himself was shot through the region of the heart and the wound is considered fatal. Averill lost consciousness again, but after being laid on a cot became conscious for a few minutes.

"I wish I had killed her," he muttered. "I would like to get a shot at her husband, too."

This he repeated frequently, as if raving in delirium until he became too weak to continue talking.

WOMAN'S STATEMENT.

Soon afterward an assistant District Attorney secured a statement from the woman as follows:

"My name is Lulu Lockwood. I live at 223 Mason street. I am a married woman, living with my husband, a painter. That is, we have made up, and if I get better we will live together.

"I have known Fred Averill who shot me, about two years. This morning at 223 Mason street, in my room, Averill shot me. I think in all he fired five times, once at

RUSSIANS ENGAGE THE JAPS IN BATTLE.

Mikado's Men Retire From a Town After An All-day's Battle.

SHANPINTAIDZE (a mile south of Bentshaputze) Monday, October 10.—The Russian left flank column (believed to be General Mikhchenko's) by way of Mukden October 12.—The Russians have been advancing in force for several days upon reaching Fudumow. The line of Kaoutou pass on the Lunshun-Bentshaputze road they began firing at the Russian advance was in contact with the Japanese. The movement of the main column was immediately checked. The Russians were then two days march from Shantpintaidze.

SKIRMISHING

Desultory skirmishing was continuing proceeding on the right and of the Japanese steadily retire.

The firing ahead became heavier yesterday and wounded men from the Russian detachment began to pass through the Russian lines. The Russians pressed forward with increased speed the infantry advancing at the double. The spirits of the men were high due to the fact that they were actively assuming the offensive. They arrived at the village of Shantpintaidze at 3 o'clock this morning.

JAPS RETREAT

The Japanese had hurriedly abandoned the place the night before giving the Chinese big prizes.

Two divisions of Japanese were engaged in this (Russian) column in front of the Russians. The general command of this (Russian) column was in the hands of General Mikhchenko. The Japanese were personally to his right flank. The Russian gunners opened fire on the Japanese. An artillery duel was experienced on the left with the Japanese mountain guns brought up from the rear pass which were shelling the Russian guns. The Japanese projectiles however fell wide of the Russian guns. The Russian gunners opened fire on the Japanese. The Japanese replied. The fighting was proceeding simultaneously apparently in favor of the Russians. The latter were using about ten miles of telegraph and telephone lines abandoned by the Japanese. There are rumors here that the Russians have occupied Yantai.

The two women got into a quarrel over a love which ended in a terrible battle. To a time it was only a matter of teeth and nails and pulling of hair but it became a fight when Belle Vega secured a knife and slashed her antagonist until she was left for dead. Her victim's head was cut by cuts but in the face and after weeks of convalescence Eva Perry was this morning able to appear in court to testify against the woman who attempted her life.

Nearly the entire morning was spent in an effort to secure a jury. Attorney John Braden makes a stubborn fight for his client when he is dealing with all of the difficulty that is in his power. The case is still going on.

JAPANESE HOLD THEIR OWN IN BATTLE.

Advance Their Position in the Face of Heavy Fire of the Russians.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 12 11 37 a. m.—The battle below Mukden continues on along the entire front and according to General Kuropatkin's latest advice sent last night after the fighting of the day had ended the Japanese were stubbornly holding their own offering a desperate resistance and had even advanced their position.

ALL DAY FIGHT

After an all day fight above Yantai where the Russians sustained their first check the Japanese still held that position. The infantry practically was not engaged the artillery being the brunt of the fighting. The Japanese stuck to their guns and the Russian batteries were unable to displace them.

According to the advice received by the War Office here the Japanese hold entrenched lines extending in a semicircle north of the Yantai railroad station erroneously reported to have been captured by the Russians. Thence they have a series of arcs covering the Yantai branch railroad, including the mines where their lines run southeastward toward the Laitse river this enclosing the mountainous region forming the triangle of their main position. General Kuropatkin's main position is a strong out strong line moving in an easterly direction as reported by the correspondent of the Associated Press.

Shantpintaidze but whether it is in fact to push it home or whether it is only a feint to cover a retreat at Yantai is not developed.

RUSSIAN PLANS

The latter view is held by many of the officers here who believe that Kuropatkin's purpose is to clump the Japanese left push them off the mountain and then strike the Japanese from the rear.

The Japanese consider that the progress they have made is sufficient and believe that the capture of the fortress although slow is certain to be accomplished.

SHE CARES NOT FOR GOD, MAN OR THE DEVIL

Mrs. Ekelund "Got Up and Dusted" and Now She is Divorced.

Charles M. Ekelund was granted a divorce today by Judge Ogden and a romance that once promised fair was snapped asunder. Katherine Ekelund, the wife, wrote a letter from Japan, which told the court sufficient for its guidance, and the decree was granted as prayed for. The letter was dated at Yokohama, April 25, and read as follows: "Dear Charles: Of course you know I am in Yokohama. I've been here two weeks. Got offer of position and left within twelve hours from the time I heard of it. I got tired of living as I was. I got tired of it all and I saw a complete break was the best. If we both had realized it years ago instead of hanging on as we have, it would have meant a much happier life to us both. "After the way you acted in San Francisco lately I realized more fully than ever how impossible it was for us to ever go together and be happy. You cared more for me once and it was different, but seeing how things had drifted I got up and dusted, and here I am and I'll not end here. I'm going on and on, wherever opportunity offers. All thoughts of home I've dropped from my heart and hereafter it's not luck, God, man, nor the devil cares and I am sure I don't. I am not one, who, having come to the realization of a half-wasted life, will waste the other half. "God, when I think of the lonely nights I spent in San Francisco, how I used to creep into my bed and go to sleep at 7 o'clock that I might forget how lonely I was and the thanks I got. Yes, they were showered upon me. I got so blue and despondent that even Patzy and the girls ceased to come to see me. Now I am free and free as the air, and— "Well, I want you to get a divorce. I know it is best Charles. It would probably save you much heartache later to be free. And I desire it. I have some say in the matter, as I once said 'Yes,' so now I'll say 'no,' and I rest on your honor to release me. I tell you frankly that I shall consider myself free whether it goes through the law or not and I know it would be best for us both. Yes, for God's sake Charles and it. I won't keep your name after that. I think it is best not. "I don't feel hard towards you. At the thought of you the tears come, but it is all over between us as completely as though the grave held one of us." After waiting a year Ekelund took the necessary steps to carry out the request in the letter and today the divorce was granted.

DARING SAILOR'S ESCAPE

Jumped Into the Water and Swam to Shore.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—A deserting sailor from the ship Alice A. Leigh had the unusual experience of reading an account of his death by drowning, reported in the morning papers. All that is missing of the man, however, is his name, and that will be recovered when the pilot who took the Leigh to sea returns. There was much trouble among the crew before the ship sailed yesterday afternoon. Half the men discovered that the other half were landmen, and feared they would have to do more than their share of the work after they got to sea. They threatened to take it out of the landmen when they were clear of the coast. Two of the crew deserted and succeeded in eluding pursuit and swam ashore, a distance of over a mile to the docks. Another waited until the ship was being towed to sea, and then jumped overboard.

The crew in the Chilean's launch saw him and offered assistance, but he refused to be saved, fearing the Chileans, though bearing gifts, and preferring to take his chances in the water. The red stack tug Sea Prince, towing the Helen P. Drew, nearly ran him down, and then threw him a rope. But it was only after receiving assurance that he would not be turned over to the authorities that he consented to be pulled out of the water.

He belonged to the landmen half of the crew, and said his occupation had been that of a quarryman. He claimed he had been given knockout drops in a water front saloon and shanghaied by a runner from a sailors' boarding house. When the Sea Prince arrived at the Fulton Iron Works he was put ashore and promptly disappeared.

FIGHT TO TAKE PLACE.

Britt and Gans Will Battle Regardless of a Permit.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Jimmy Britt and Jo Gans will contest for the lightweight championship before the Shasta Club at Mechanics' Pavilion on the night of October 31, regardless of whether or not the Supervisors grant a permit.

That is the opinion of men close in on affairs pugilistic and political, and there seems to be considerable reason for their belief. At any rate, James W. Coffroth, manager of the Shasta Club, is going right ahead with his preparations for the battle and is getting out quantities of printed matter advertising the contest for this city, in accordance with the articles of agreement between himself and the fighters.

The Police Committee of the Board of Supervisors will meet tomorrow. Coffroth's application for a permit is on file and will be taken up in regular order. It may be denied, or the committee may decide to take no action concerning it. If the permit is denied the board as a whole will probably support the action of the committee.

But there are other phases to the matter subsequently to be taken into consideration. The report has been circulated that Coffroth would go directly to the Mayor and seek a permit from him; but the fact is that the Mayor has no right to grant a permit, and such a document issued by him would not be worth the paper upon which it was written, provided the Police Department chose to interfere.

Right there is the kernel in the shell. The Police Department is not apt to interfere, permit or no permit; and Coffroth will doubtless avoid an idle act by not seeing to secure a permit from Schmitz. On the contrary, he will go right ahead and pull off the match sans permit.

The Police Department will not dare to stop the contest if Ruef gives the word to let it go on, and so far as the law is concerned, it would appear that there is no punishment provided for holding a boxing exhibition without a permit from the Supervisors. The granting of permits is a regulation which may, if contested, be found invalid.

So for these reasons the wisecracks of pugilism and politics are whispering the word along the line that the Britt-Gans go will take place regardless of a permit. If a permit is granted, so much the better, but otherwise no attention will be paid to the regulation and Abe Ruef will give his consent.

Coffroth has notified both Gans and Britt to go ahead with their training, advising them that he will pull the fight off in San Francisco rather than at Colma. Both of the fighters have taken up preliminary work, and by the first of next week will be in hard training.

ARRESTED ON A FRAUD CHARGE.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—The iron door of a cell in the City Prison clanged this morning on Joseph Rebstock, one of Abe Ruef's young men and a political pet. Rebstock, who was the inspector in the Alms house precinct at the last primary election, was indicted last night by the Grand Jury for failure to perform his duty. Without waiting for the indictment to be filed, Captain of Detectives Bennett sent two of his men in search of the offender. Bennett remembered the case of Adolph Steffens, the stuffer who fled, and took no chances. The two men first sent out did not find Rebstock, but a third one did, and shortly before 10 o'clock this morning the indicted man found himself upstairs in the Hall of Justice.

MISS BARROWS SUDDENLY STRICKEN

MISS MABLE HAY BARROWS AS SHE WAS TO APPEAR IN "AJAX."

Miss Mable Hay Barrows who came all the way from New York at the invitation of President Wheeler to superintend the revival of the ancient Greek drama at the Hearst Amphitheater on October 18th, has been taken suddenly ill. It is announced this afternoon that her condition is serious. It has therefore been necessary to postpone the production indefinitely. Miss Barrows was scheduled for an important part in the play.

STEAMER STRIKES WHALE.

Passengers Got a Shake-up on the Ocean.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—The Oceanic steamer Mariposa arrived this morning from Tahiti. On the passage down the wanted monotony of blue sides and summer seas was broken by a strange accident. It happened at noon, just before the ship crossed the equator. Captain Rennie was on the bridge, taking the moon observation, and the passengers had just sat down to lunch in the saloon, when suddenly the ship lurched and a tremor shook her steel frame. For a moment all was confusion on board. The passengers rushed to the deck. At first the captain thought one of the ship's boilers had blown up. The firemen and engineers thought she had run on a rock.

After an investigation that discovered no injuries to the vessel, the captain turned the ship around and went back to the spot where the accident happened. There on the surface of the quiet water was a great spot of whale oil and in it the fragments of a huge whale, which had evidently been enjoying a noontime siesta on the placid waters when the steamer ran into it.

Captain Rennie says that in all his experience at sea he never had a greater fright, so unexpected was the shock. The Mariposa brought twenty-seven passengers and 1838 tons of freight from the islands.

The passengers report that the people of Tahiti are rejoicing over a rise in the price of shells. The following is a list of those who came in the first cabin: E. Andre, Mrs. Rose Andre, Master Gaston Andre, C. A. F. Ducorron, W. H. Robinson, Miss E. Hufschmitt, Mrs. Shaw, Judge A. Howells, Mrs. de Sweet, R. Tancredi.

ARTHUR BENNETT SUICIDES.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12.—Arthur Bennett, who has been employed as a stenographer by A. J. Hackmann in the Hayward Building for some time, committed suicide at an early hour this morning at 1402 Webster street. Bennett, who was 27 years old, has been in ill-health for a long time. Despondency is supposed to have been the cause of suicide.

GOULD MAY NOW CONTROL.

May Make Change in Plans of Western Pacific.

SALT LAKE, October 12.—What makes the railroad situation here the more interesting is the fact that the large Harriman holdings of Northern Pacific stock are vested in the Oregon Short Line corporation.

It is the generally expressed belief among local railroad officials that the control of the Union Pacific system has passed from the Harriman to the Gould-Rockefeller interests and that to-day's postponement of the Oregon Short Line directors' election foreshadows some exceedingly important changes affecting the Western Railway system.

There is much interest expressed in the possible effect the change in the Union Pacific may have upon the construction of the Western Pacific Railroad from San Francisco to Salt Lake City. This road was intended as a Pacific Coast outlet for the Gould lines.

PORTLAND, October 12.—The telephone girls, to the number of 100, met last night and organized a union, which has affiliated with the Federated Trades Council. It was determined that unless today brought an amelioration of their alleged wrongs the operators would leave their boards and walk out at a given signal. Word of the impending strike was passed among the several hundred operators who were unable to attend last night's meeting, and when the signal was given shortly after 1 o'clock almost the entire operating force quit their places.

ALLIANCE PLANS FOR AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in Masonic Temple Last Night—Will Go South.

With rousing speeches in which predictions were made for a great Republican victory at the coming election, the Alliance once more re-organized itself for active service at a meeting held at Masonic Temple last night by the election of Judge Henry Melvin as president and Dr. H. P. Travers, secretary. The organization which is one of the oldest and most effective clubs of its kind in the State determined to once more buckle on its armor and march into hostile and uncertain districts to aid in rolling up the biggest Republican vote ever polled in California.

It was a gathering of representative men of the city and the voice of V. W. Gaskill, John P. Cook, Edwin Stearns, Supervisor John Mitchell, Judge Melvin, J. Cal. Baum and others were heard in a general council as to the manner in which the club could do the most good. In order to meet the gathering with the mention of a particularly brilliant name, the following letter was read from President Roosevelt thanking the organization for his election as an honorary member of the club.

"WHITE HOUSE, Washington, Oct. 5, 1904.—My Dear Sir: Your letter of September 20th has been received and the President thanks you and your associates for the compliment paid him in his election as an honorary member of your organization. Conveying to you the President's appreciation of your courtesy, I am very truly yours, "WILLIAM LOEB."

"Secretary to the President."

"Dr. H. P. Travers, Secretary Republican Alliance, Oakland, Cal."

With the name of the President as its standard bearer the meeting then proceeded to the important work of the evening and to map out a plan for the conduct of the club during the next few weeks. For a general talk upon this phase of the matter V. W. Gaskill was called upon by President Melvin who said in part:

"This is going to be a great Republican year and I want to do my share towards putting in the White House one of the greatest living Republicans. So far as this State goes every election, will be for Roosevelt. But we want to strengthen him with a Republican House of Representatives and to this end I believe it is the function of this club during the coming campaign."

"I have marched with this club through many a campaign. I have seen what it can do and the enthusiasm it can arouse and with our uniforms and torches I believe we should march into weak and uncertain districts to aid in the election of Congressmen where there is any doubt of the result. The remainder of the evening was then devoted to the pleasures of a smoker."

HE IS NOT A SOCIALIST.

H. V. MOREHOUSE DID NOT TALK ON THE STREET.

San Francisco, Cal., October 12, 1904. Editor TRIBUNE, Dear Sir:—I see by the issue of your valuable paper of the 8th inst., that I am charged, among other political misdeeds, with having delivered an open air speech, on the corner of Grant avenue, to the Socialists, etc.

Now, as I did not speak and have not spoken at any time in my life on Grant avenue or for the Socialists, I presume you will do me the favor to have "Mr. Knave" correct the same in his next communication. I am, as you know, grown so imprudent on newspaper attacks, that I scarcely feel in the humor to ask corrections, but I do not desire among my many sins, which seem so unpleasant to the Railroad control of State politics, to stand the charge of being the public advocate of economic questions. I know nothing about them, I am simply practicing law, minding my own business and when I see fit to enter the political arena, I will be equipped for battle. Yours very truly, H. V. MOREHOUSE

YAQUI INDIAN AFFAIR WAS EXAGGERATED

NOGALES, ARIZ., October 12.—The recent Yaqui Indian troubles in Sonora have been very much exaggerated by some newspaper correspondents. Only one district was involved and it is now thoroughly patrolled by Federal troops, so that there is no danger and freight is entirely safe. All the other districts are free of Indian troubles.

southern part of the State I am assured by the Republican leaders there will be safe for Roosevelt by many thousands and I do not believe that we should contemplate a trip south of Tehuacapan. We can do more good in our own part of the State. Hayes at San Jose and Duncan E. McKinley at Santa Rosa are both having a hard fight and I believe that this club should do all in its power to lend these men a helping hand."

These views were generally endorsed and as a supplement to them, J. Cal. Baum counseled as follows:

"I think we should calculate upon at least three or four trips. We want to go to San Jose. Hayes the Republican nominee is having a tussle there and we want to help him. We want to go to Santa Rosa and Sacramento and possibly Napa to help McKinley. All of Napa is the present incumbent and a Democrat and has that district in his hand and McKinley needs all the help we can give him."

After some further discussion it was understood that the club would make at least three trips out of town besides a home demonstration. The details, however, it was proposed to leave to a committee and to this end the following men were appointed to look out for the necessary arrangements: V. W. Gaskill, Dr. H. P. Travers and J. S. Martin.

A committee on campaign was appointed as follows: J. P. Cook, chairman, Varney Gaskill, H. P. Travers, Alexander Marx, John Stetson, F. K. Mott, John Mitchell, H. C. Capwell, George H. Mason, P. W. Bellings, N. A. Koser.

The following finance committee was also appointed: V. W. Gaskill, F. E. Brigham, R. J. Boyer.

The matter of membership was then taken up and it was agreed that the old muster roll of the club should be gone over and as many new names added as possible. This work was left to the Campaign Committee and in order to get immediately to work, Chairman Cook called upon every man in the house to come up and sign the club roll. Every member who would pledge himself to go on the club's trips was asked to stand up and nearby the assembly rose to its feet. The name of each one was taken and they were instructed that they could get their uniforms at Messersan's. It was predicted that the club would have a marching membership of 150 and with this end in view the various committees will busy themselves today preparing the details of the work before them.

The remainder of the evening was then devoted to the pleasures of a smoker.

BANQUET FOR THE SECRETARY.

WILBER WALKER IS HONORED BY THE MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE.

The Board of Directors of the Merchants' Exchange gave a banquet at the Hotel Metropole last evening in honor of its secretary, Wilbur Walker, who has just returned from St. Louis, where he has been attending the exposition. An address of welcome was made by Mr. A. Jones, president of the Exchange and toastmaster of the occasion. Mr. Walker responded and told how glad he was to be back in Oakland again, how sorry he was that he had not been here to work for the bonds, and ended with a general description of California's superior advantages over other localities.

Those present at the banquet were: A. Jones, A. H. Schluter, W. H. Weir, G. W. Ayer, R. M. Briard, D. C. Brown, J. L. Chapman, H. C. Coward, F. G. Eiben, Herman H. Gard, Geo. Hoffman, E. F. Miller, H. M. Sanborn, Fred Sinclair, E. C. Williams, Emil Lehardt, Theo. Geo. J. P. W. Sobst, E. A. Young and C. F. Carl.

POSSESSIONS EXEMPT WITHIN $100 LIMIT

NEW YORK, October 12.—An order of the Treasury Department has just gone into effect which will be a cause of joy to homeward-bound trans-Atlantic passengers to declare every article in their baggage including the $100 worth exempt by law.

In future it will not be necessary for incoming travelers to make any statements concerning their possessions within the $100 limit.

Most of the complaints against the inspectors which led to the issuance of the order came from women who asserted that their gowns were badly used and sometimes subjected to three or four inspections by special agents on the place.

County Clerk John P. Cook Explains the New Law to Alliance Members.

The marking of the ballots at the coming election has been considerably simplified by the last law passed by the Legislature upon this subject and according to County Clerk John P. Cook it is a matter which every voter should take the trouble to interest himself in. Upon this subject, County Clerk Cook addressed himself at some length before a meeting of the Republican Alliance at its meeting held last night at the Masonic Temple in which he called attention to the marking of the ballots and in this connection said:

"By a recent act of the Legislature the danger of invalidating ballots has been greatly lessened and I would like to call attention to the ease with which a ballot can be marked this year in comparison to former years. Since the inauguration of the Australian ballot system a large percentage of the ballots have been thrown out on account of the fact that the marking marks have invalidated the ballots according to the ruling of the courts. This year no marking with the rubber stamp made in the proper manner will invalidate the ballot, nor will the how many marks are made upon it."

In order to explain this matter successfully I would say that first of all a straight ticket can be marked by a stamp in the circle at the head of each party column. There was some confusion over this point at the last election. Then, the voter can mark a stamp in the circle and then proceed to vote for whom ever he chooses in other columns. The stamp in this case would count for everything in the column excepting where another candidate had been voted for.

"Suppose for instance I stamped a cross in the circle at the head of the Republican column. This would entitle every candidate upon the Republican ticket to a vote. Supposing a voter, however, after marking a cross in the circle should stamp crosses after candidates upon some of the other tickets then the mark in the circle at the head of the column would count for all the tickets with the exception of the names after which the crosses had been made."

"By this arrangement there is very little likelihood of any one's ballot being invalidated unless it is purposely marked in such a way that it can be identified. A stamp in the circle means a straight ticket. But one may stamp a cross in the circle and then proceed to vote for as many others as he may wish."

CRAFT AT MERCY PUT SCHOOL BOY OF STORM IN JAIL

VESSELS ARE DRIVEN IN DANGER THROUGH HELL'S GATE.

NEW YORK, October 12.—While the heavy storm, which broke during the night, was at its height, three coal laden craft each with a family on board, tore loose from their moorings in East river and swept down through Hell's Gate, past Blackwell's island and into the wider stretch of river, where all trace of them was lost. Their progress at this point was traced by cries for help from those on board the little craft, but the swift current in the river soon carried them far out toward the storm-swept bay.

The police, after vainly trying to secure some tugboat or other craft to go to the aid of the craft, notified the various ferry lines and fireboats and intimated tugboats to watch for them.

The combined effect of wind and tide produced an unusually strong current down the river. Tugboats under full steam found it almost impossible to make progress up the river.

OWNER FOR AN AUTO IS FINALLY FOUND

NEW YORK, October 12.—Mystery regarding the ownership of the automobile that plunged from Jerome avenue to the New York Central tracks last Friday morning killing three persons and maiming four others, has been cleared up by the coroner's inquest. Thomas H. Alcazar, president of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, owned the automobile. Albert Noyes, the driver, who was almost instantly killed under the wreckage of the machine, was in his employ. He had been instructed to take it to a repair shop Thursday night after carrying the owner to his home in Newark. Evidently Noyes took advantage of his instructions to spend the evening with friends.

The coroner's jury found Noyes to blame for the wreck, but recommended the closing of the blind street where the automobile ran over a wall and fell to the railroad tracks.

STORIES OF PLACES.

Lessa is a dirty town, according to the Englishmen who have seen it. "Black pools of water," writes the correspondent, "and gloomed the wide uneven space into which we emerged, and ever the Chinese quarter to the right of us was dirtier than China; sections generally are the result of mud banks and in the open square before the Chinese amban's residence herds of black pigs roamed in rubbish heaps, which were more than usually repulsive in composition. To the left the houses or a few ragabags, or professional scavengers, were betrayed by the famous brown walls, which no visitor to Lessa has failed to notice. Perhaps the sight of these walls reminded one of that other dirty of the ragabags—the cutting up and distribution to the cemetery of the dead. The wheat was visible. It was only a few steps away, and the reputed food of the Lessa pigs became in a flash a disgustingly probable reflection."

City Surveyor Raleigh C. Thomas has reported to the burned district commission of Baltimore that his men uncovered a large portion of wheat that was still burning—exactly seven months after the fire. "The wheat was so hot," said Mr. Thomas, "that we could not handle it. We had to let it cool off before we could proceed with the work. The wheat was in solid chunks, but the grains were distinctly visible. It was one of the most remarkable things I ever saw."

In the River Way, England, a fisherman recently landed a fish trout weighing two pounds and six ounces and measuring sixteen inches in length. He found the tail of a rat protruding from its mouth and could see the hind legs at the far end of its mouth. Upon opening the fish he found a large white rat measuring ten inches.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY LEACH PROTESTS AGAINST THIS ACT.

Jay Gould, a 13-year-old boy, was arrested last night by Policemen Bock and Keefe on a charge of disturbing the peace and kept in the City Prison all night. The boy says that his parents were not aware of his imprisonment.

This state of facts called out a strong protest from Prosecuting Attorney Leach. "On this showing I will refuse to issue a complaint as far as I am concerned," said Leach. "I understand that the boy in that vicinity are in the habit of throwing rocks at the various houses. It was for an act of this kind that the boy was taken into custody. But he should not have been jailed at that time of night."

Judge Samuel said the boy might go home in response to questions put by the court the boy said he was 13 years old and that he went to school. His father, interested with his school this morning.

The court read the lad a lecture on remaining on the streets after dark. After exclaiming a promise from the boy to mend his conduct Judge Samuel sent him home.

LAMPS OF THE ANCIENTS.

"This world groped until the thirteenth century without discovering even the tallow candle," says a writer. "The expression 'Mankind was plunged in darkness during the early ages' is true in every sense. It was perhaps the burning of a bit of fat of some slain animal that suggested its use as a lumina, which the hollow shell from the sea, a concave rock or a mold of sun-baked clay held the rush in the fat, with its lighted end projecting over the edge of the rude dish. NEWS FROM S. P. YARDS.

NEW WATER SUPPLY STATION TO BE INSTALLED AT BERENDA.

A water supply station is to be established by the Southern Pacific Company at Berenda, near Fresno. The plant is to be installed under the direction of Niles Searles Jr. and, contrary to the other water stations, will be operated by an electric engine and pump. This station will also be provided with a water purifier. The reason that oil will be used for a fuel is that the station is close to the fields where the Southern Pacific Company procures its oil.

RAILWAY CLUB.
A meeting of the Pacific Coast Railway Club is to be held next Saturday night in San Francisco. At the last meeting of the club R. P. Erdon, vice-president of the Wadsworth-Howland Company of Chicago was elected a member of the club. At the next meeting of the organization the application of membership of W. H. Phelps, Geo. S. Ames, T. E. Smyth and O. R. Carlson, the latter being at West Oakland, will be acted upon. An interesting paper is being prepared for reading before the members of the club next Saturday night.

SHOP AND YARD NOTES.
Locomotives 1474 and 1475 have been received at the West Oakland shops for light repairs. Three car-loads of coal have been received at the yards.

Mrs. Jane Stanford's private car "Stanford" will leave for the East tonight.

The Rev. E. E. Baker of the First Presbyterian Church gave a regular noon hour talk to the shop employees yesterday.

BELL THEATER.
There is an excellent bill at the Bell Theater this week. Large audiences were in attendance at both Monday night's and Tuesday night's performances and all were pleased. The Three Irving Brothers, allied as acrobatic wonders, uphold the high reputation they bore while traveling with Ringling Brothers' circus. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Chick, who have been retained by the management for another week, gave a new and entertaining sketch entitled "The Lion's Sleep." Mr. Chick has a splendid voice, which is used to advantage during the sketch. Harry Deane, an actor, does well, while (the) J. J. Schell, in his role of comedy and character, pleases everybody. George Plante, in pictured melodies, is in good voice and his songs are new and much appreciated. Budd Swathorn, comedy "timber" and burlesque actors, keep the audience in a constant uproar throughout their performance. The moving pictures this week are ever more entertaining than comedy. The subject, entitled "Indiana and Cowboys," is a very realistic and causes much enthusiasm.

OAK LEAF LODGE FLOURISHING.

LARGELY ATTENDED MEETING AT WHICH BUSINESS IS TRANSACTED.

Oak Leaf Lodge No. 35, A. O. U. W., had a well attended meeting Monday evening. Master Workman O. Toole occupied the chair.

The second reading of the resolution

NAGGING PAINS

Newport News, Va., July 23, 1903.
Last summer while recovering from illness of fever, I had a severe attack of Indurmy Rheumatism in the knees, from which I was unable to leave my room for several months. I was treated by two doctors and also tried different kinds of liniments and medicines which seemed to relieve me from pain for awhile, but at the same time I was no any nearer getting well. One day while reading a paper I saw an advertisement of S. S. S. for Rheumatism. I decided to give it a trial, which I did at once. After I had taken three bottles I felt a great deal better, and I still continued to take it regularly until I was entirely cured. I now feel better than for years, and I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. to any one suffering from Rheumatism.

613 3rd St. CHAS. E. GILDERSLERVE.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid or some other acid poison in the blood, which when deposited in the muscles and joints, produce the sharp, cutting pains and the stiffness and soreness peculiar to this disease. S. S. S. goes directly into the circulation, all irritating substances are neutralized and filtered out of the system, the blood is made pure and the general health is built up under the purifying and tonic effects of the vegetable remedy.

Write for our special book on Rheumatism which is sent free. Our physicians will advise without charge all who will write us about their case.

relating to changes in the by-laws took place and the subject matter will be voted upon next Monday evening.

The master workman specially requested that as many members as possible would attend that meeting as the changes to be voted upon will be a benefit to the lodge's treasury.

Grand Medical Examiner Mayon, who was present, caused considerable enthusiasm by his statement that the order had, after its trying ordeal, made a decided advance movement and that good reports were coming into the Grand Lodge from all parts of the State.

Past Master Cogan made a motion that the brothers of Oak Leaf Lodge be invited to attend the institution of the new lodge at Point Richmond next Saturday evening with quite a large membership.

Members of Oak Leaf Lodge desiring to go to Point Richmond next Saturday evening are requested to meet at Santa Fe depot, Porterville street and San Pablo avenue.

Brother Cogan was elected chairman of the visiting delegation to Point Richmond.

Past Master Gilmore of Pacific Lodge gave an eloquent little talk on "Why He Believes the A. O. U. W. the best fraternal and insurance organization in existence." His remarks were loudly applauded.

Bro. W. J. Hall, secretary of the committee on entertainment in commemoration of the thirty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the A. O. U. W. by Father O'Connell, stated an elaborate musical and literary entertainment would be given under the auspices of Oak Leaf Lodge, Pacific and Ivy Lodges on Thursday evening, October 27 in Fraternal Hall.

A letter was received from Past Master Workman Pardee, Governor of this State, to the effect that he would probably be in attendance.

Brother Hall reported that he had received a letter from the Grand Recorder stating that henceforth, death claims will be paid within 90 days, and possibly, by the commencement of the new year, claims will be paid within from 30 to 60 days.

Brother Oakes, on behalf of Ivy Lodge, D. of H., invited the members present to an entertainment which was being held in the Degree of Honor's cozy little hall and the invitation was quickly accepted. A very fine repast was enjoyed at the conclusion of the program.

Brother Greenough who has been in Northern California for nearly a year was present and stated that he was glad to be back in the old lodge room of Oak Leaf once again.

How Fruit Shippers Are Cinched.

A flood of light is being let in on the methods of the Chicago packers' combine in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission. It appears that the packers have taken a leaf out of the book of the Standard Oil Company, which gained a mastery, and thereby special rates, over the railroads by playing the competing roads against each other. With their private car system, the packers have grown more powerful than the railroads. Apparently their aim is to gain absolute control over the carrying trade in perishable food products by their ownership of private cars which they route as they please. How they have cinched the California fruitgrowers is shown by the testimony of James S. Watson, formerly manager of Porter Brothers, bankrupt. The fruit shippers were charged $80 for icing cars, whereas the real charge was $10.32. The difference went into the pockets of Mr. Watson, who was in collusion with the Fruit Growers' Express Company, an alias of the private car combine. Mr. Ogden Armour admitted advancing Mr. Watson $400,000 at one time. Mr. Watson admitted that he probably realized $50,000 a year through his transactions with the Fruit Growers Express Company as profit which is said by shippers to be a rebate. The transcontinental roads have been blamed for the excessive freight charges on fresh fruit shipments, but it appears from this testimony that the exorbitant rates are due to a group of mercenary middlemen, who have a grip with one hand on the railroads and a grip with the other on the fruit growers. The railroads are not responsible for the excessive charges and do not benefit by them. In fact, they are injured by an arrangement which curtails traffic and keeps the rolling stock of the railways idle that employment may be given to cars owned by other corporations. Naturally the railroad companies desire to break up a system which limits their control over their own property and enforces rates for which they get the blame and not the profit. It is needless to say that the interests of the producers and shippers are at one with the interests of the railroads in this matter.

The Chicago meat packers have signaled their victory over their employees by again putting up the price of dressed meats. A packing house employee now gets 17 cents an hour—exactly the price of a pound of round steak in the Chicago butcher shops—and only irregular work. On an average the packing house employee gets in about four days a week.

It is stated that Abe Ruef's and Mayor Schmitz's merry men are working up signatures against the high license proposition in San Francisco. Perhaps if the license was higher the "pull's" "rake-off" would be smaller.

"Business prospects are brighter," says a trade paper. Naturally; Republican success is assured.

The attempt to prevent the construction of the "mines road" has only made Supervisor Horner more popular with his constituents. The people of Livermore Valley are in a unit in favor of constructing the road, which is of peculiar local importance, and they are going to show Mr. Horner their appreciation of his good work by giving him an increased majority. The effort to defeat the building of the road has strengthened him in their good opinion. One good turn deserves another.

Jefferson was the first red-headed Democratic candidate for President and Judge Parker promises to be the last. Red hair is no more an indication of genius than it is the oriflamme of success.

After the election Judge Parker and Miss Democracy can sing in duet:

Of all sad words of tongue or pen.

The saddest are these: it might have been.

But the Judge will have to ride his way filled with melancholy reflection, leaving the Democratic Maud Muller to vain repining.

The Alameda Encinal is inclined to grow facetious over the proposition tentatively advanced in the Progress Federation to annex Oakland to San Francisco. There are elements of the ridiculous in the proposition, but in contemplating the humorous side our Alameda contemporary should not draw an incorrect and unjust comparison between the tax-rate in San Francisco and the tax-rate of Oakland. It is true that the total tax-rate of Oakland is $2.84 on the $100 valuation, but it includes the State levy of 53 1/2 cents on the $100. The San Francisco rate is $1.53 1/2 plus the special levy on account of the improvement bonds recently voted across the bay. But why does not the Encinal compare the tax-rate of Alameda with Oakland? Oakland's municipal rate is $1.26, while that of Alameda is $1.38. Some comparisons are odious.

The Democratic National Committee have abandoned the entire west, with the exception of Nevada and Montana, and are now bending their energies to picking up a Congressman here and there. Their efforts in Utah are directed to the election of a Congressman and the State ticket. In California all they hope for is to save one or two of the three districts now held by Democrats. This fact should cause the Republicans to make redoubled efforts to elect their Congressmen in the doubtful districts. The State is safe for Roosevelt, and therefore party energies should largely be devoted to electing the Congressional candidates. It is folly for Republicans to vote to elect Roosevelt President and then vote for Democratic Congressmen to tie his hands.

We place no reliance in the report that Governor Peabody of Colorado has been requested to deliver Republican campaign speeches in Ohio. His appearance on the stump would be taken as an affront to organized labor and would savor of an endorsement of his revolutionary and despotic methods in Colorado. The best thing the Republican National Committee can do with Peabody is to drop him out of the back window and forget him.

Why McKinlay Should Be Elected.

There are several potent reasons why Hon. Duncan E. McKinlay should be elected to Congress from the Second District.

First, he is an able, honest, high-minded man who will serve his constituents with zeal and credit.

Second, he is a Republican.

Third, he stands for the Protective Tariff, which is of such importance to the producers and manufacturers of California.

Fourth, he is a supporter of President Roosevelt, with whose policy he ardently sympathizes, and whose administrative methods he heartily endorses.

Fifth, Mr. McKinlay's opponent is opposed to the Republican party, opposed to the Protective Tariff, opposed to President Roosevelt and opposed to the general policy which has guided this nation since March 4, 1897.

These reasons ought to insure the election of Mr. McKinlay, a Republican running in a Republican district.

Since the manufacturer who puts iron into life preservers loomed into publicity all other candidates in the "meanest man" contest have sunk into oblivion.—Chicago News.

The Republican Alliance.

The Republican Alliance, the oldest and most effective Republican organization in the State, will throw itself into the campaign with all its old-time vigor and enthusiasm. Here is no especial need for the Alliance to be active in Alameda County, for it now seems a foregone conclusion that every man on the Republican ticket will be elected by rousing majorities, but the members of the organization desire the county to roll up a banner majority for Roosevelt and Knowland. Besides, they propose to lend a helping hand in the Second and Fifth Congressional Districts. In particular they wish to aid Duncan McKinlay, who has endeared himself to the Alliance by his unselfish and unremitting labors in behalf of the Republican party during past campaigns. The Alliance will visit Santa Rosa and San Jose to take part in political demonstrations in behalf of Messrs. McKinlay and Hayes, and are preparing to line up with full ranks to again show other parts of the State the loyalty and enthusiasm that animates the crack political organization of California, an organization that has never failed the party nor shirked a call in behalf of its candidates. When the Alliance takes an active part there is always life and spirit in the canvass.

Hon. Joseph R. Knowland may well feel a just pride in the esteem in which his neighbors hold him. When he appeared for the first time in this campaign before an Alameda audience he was greeted with an ovation that any man might be proud of. A prophet may be without honor in his own country, but Mr. Knowland is not without honor in his own town. His fellow citizens of Alameda took occasion to testify in a most signal manner to the respect they feel for him and the high regard in which they hold him. Old men who had known him from boyhood and young men who had been bred with him vie with each other in cheering him. A man can have no better and no prouder endorsement than the affection and good opinion of his neighbors.

Kuropatkin's Advance Movement.

Kuropatkin's advance movement has naturally given a new turn to the war in Manchuria, but the meaning of it has not yet developed. If the Russian commander has decided to take the offensive in a winter campaign he has embarked on an extremely hazardous project, but if his object is only to retake Liao Yang and hold it as a winter base his movement is easily understood. To force the Japanese back to the coast in the attempt to relieve Port Arthur would be a Herculean task, especially as the Mikado's army will contest every foot of the way behind entrenchments. It may be possible, as the dispatches indicate, that the exigencies of domestic politics have made an advance on the part of Kuropatkin necessary. From a military point of view, fighting battles for political reasons is of more than doubtful expediency, but the military annals of many countries afford numerous examples of its being done. If Kuropatkin is moving forward against his judgment in obedience to an imperative mandate from St. Petersburg, his slowness and deliberation are evidences that he is doing so with wary caution. At Liao Yang he proved himself to be a stubborn and resourceful fighter, and his retreat after the crumbling up of his wings showed strategic skill of a high order. He is unquestionably an able soldier, and is not likely to undertake rash enterprises, and an offensive winter campaign with a remote base has in many elements of rashness.

When it is proved that protection has made our manufacturing industries prosperous, the Democrats turn around and say "Well, the time has arrived to deprive them of protection." In other words, they propose to abolish protection because it has worked so well, and substitute for it a system that is the antithesis of protection. But the Democrats were always illogical and inconsistent.

Bryan stumping for Parker in Indiana and Ohio, and Cleveland speaking for him in New York is another illustration of the tail wagging in one direction and the ears wagging in another while the body of the dog remains stationary.

When the late Postmaster-General Payne was fifteen he began earning money for himself by sweeping out the postoffice of his native town, Ashfield, Massachusetts. His last work was to sweep the postoffice department clean of grafters and jobbers. So he began and ended by keeping things clean in the postal service.

OAKLAND AND HER LARGE AMBITION.

There is nothing small about Oakland. If anything it is suffering from enlargement of the bump of generosity. The latest indication of its benevolent disposition is an offer to San Francisco to annex the metropolis, which plan is said to have met with considerable favor when advanced by a prominent citizen at a recent meeting of the Progress Federation.

How grateful must San Francisco be to learn of this! The full extent of Oakland's kindly intention can be appreciated when it is explained that the total tax in San Francisco for both city and county government is but $1.00 per $100, while that of Oakland is $2.84. As to Alameda, it is apologetic when the rate is advanced to $1.38. If a further proof were needed of the generous spirit which has actuated the progenitors of this scheme, it may be added that they are willing to sacrifice the name of Oakland, and call the city "East San Francisco."

The bond issue having been defeated, the Progress Federation is determined that something shall be accomplished. Alameda displays no anxiety to be annexed, indeed is determined to fight such a proposition. Just now there is a strong feeling in favor of a freeholders' charter, which will be a safeguard against the loss of Alameda's autonomy through annexation with Oakland.

If our voice may be heard among the multitude we would suggest that Oakland annex Goat Island. Certainly the tax-rate is low enough there, and it would afford a public park, and there would be no chance of running a railroad through it.

The proposition of the Progress Federation is affecting, to say the least, and callous indeed must be San Francisco if it cannot appreciate the spirit of kindly generosity, not to say self-sacrifice, that has actuated the organization.—Alameda Encinal.

Manicure sets packed in a small case for travelers' use can be purchased for $1.

Sherbet cups came in delicate china and are slipped into an outer cup of silver tracery.

Candy boxes come in the design of golf balls and make pretty gifts to the golf girl enthusiast.

Flower vases in green or clear crystal glass are on the bargain counters for 25 cents each.

A tan-colored walrus bag with gilt frame has little round handles fastened on each side with gilt nail heads.

Envelope bags with strap handles may be had for 5 cents each. They come in black, white, tan and brown walrus.

A set of three shirtwaist buttons with a safety pin device for fastening them on can be had for 5 cents a set.

For the moment a fad is to have the monogram on all glassware and in the new designs a space is left for this purpose.

A novelty in hat trimming is the great ribbon bows, accompanied by round stuffed balls made of the ribbon. In the popular vivid orange yellow these balls somewhat resemble small oranges.

To free the pipe of the lavatory basin from soap and slime put two large handfuls of common salt at the bottom of the basin at night. This will gradually dissolve and the first flush of water in the morning will clear the waste pipe.

Never open an umbrella to let it dry, for while the silk is wet it easily stretches. The right plan is to close the umbrella and to stand with its handle to drain, for thus water soon runs out of it, whereas, if stood downward, much of the water would run into the part where the spokes meet at the stick, causing the metal to rust and weaken the frame.

The women of this generation are undoubtedly suffering from too much occupation. The listless, bored, discontented, unsexed girl of twenty years ago has given place to the restless, energetic and positively desperate business woman thirsting for new outlets for enterprise. We are caught up in the whirlwind of modern civilization and we imagine we are happy because we have no time to think of anything to the contrary.

When a physician orders light diet for one who is just beginning to recover from a severe illness it is well to know exactly what dishes "light diet" includes. Here is a list given by a careful doctor of the writer's acquaintance. Chicken, chicken and mutton broth, broiled fillets of chicken, lamb chops, tenderloin steak, delicately cooked game, soft cooked eggs, dry and milk toast, cereal in small portions, eggnog, kourmisa, milk punch, cocoa, custards, fresh fruit, gelatin jellies and sponge cake.

A woman who has to stand on her feet through long hours every day advises a warm ammoniated bath nightly to take the fatigue out of the tired feet. A teaspoonful of ammonia is added to the foot bath or basin of warm water, and in this the feet are immersed for a good quarter of an hour. Then the feet are dried and while still warm and moist are rubbed with a little vaseline. In the morning the feet are rubbed all over with French chalk. The treatment, she says, removes the sting and somehow eases the strain of walking and standing.

One of the best things for the woman to do, who wishes to take on flesh is to avoid worry, to keep in an even-tempered condition, avoiding anger, eating little, but often, and drinking plenty of milk and sleeping all she can. On the other hand, if the fat woman would reduce she should confine herself to three meals a day, avoid bread and potatoes, get up early in the morning and lead as active a life as possible. It is not necessary to starve or to suffer in order to reduce. Fat around and immediately below the waist is said to be more easily removed by walking than any other form of exercise.

ALAMEDA WANTS A CHARTER.

Better Service Wanted From the Transit Company.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—Two associations of representative citizens are now pulling together to secure a new charter for Alameda, the West End Alameda Improvement Association and the Alameda Advancement Association. At a meeting of the directors of the latter body Monday night in the City Hall Charles E. Neal, George H. Masack and Phil S. Miller were appointed to co-operate with the West Enders in working for a charter, and resolutions were adopted, reading as follows: Whereas, the city of Alameda has outgrown its present charter and its progress is retarded by the restrictions thereof; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the opinion of this board the best interests of Alameda require the adoption of a charter which cannot be amended except by the votes of Alamedans themselves.

Resolved, That we favor the movement, already begun, for the adoption of a new charter.

Resolved, That our committee on public affairs be instructed to confer with a committee from the West End Alameda Improvement Association regarding the election of a Board of Freeholders for the framing of a new charter, to be submitted to the people for their vote in time so that the same may be placed before the next Legislature for ratification.

The poor electric car service that has been given the residents of Alameda for some time past, has at last been recorded public concern. The directors of the Advancement Association adopted the following resolution concerning the matter at Monday night's meeting:

Resolved, That our committee on public affairs be and they are hereby directed to call the attention of the Board of Trustees of the city of Alameda to the poor service rendered by the local electric car line.

For a long time past the Oakland Transit Company has dumped all the refuse rolling stock on the Alameda branch. The roadbed is in a dangerous condition; almost every day some antiquated car jumps the track, endangering it is said, the lives of its passengers.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—As a subject for the debate with the Alameda High School, which will take place at the Girls' High School of San Francisco about the middle of next month, Jose has submitted the following question: "Resolved, That the United States should prohibit, by force if necessary, the acquisition of territory on the American continent by European powers."

The local debaters will be allowed two weeks in which to choose their side of the question, which will then be returned to San Jose. The Alameda team consists of Frank O'Brien, Jerome Politzer and Roswell Maguire, while the Oakland team consists of the following: The winner will be entitled to the championship of the tournament and a trophy cup. The Commercial Evening High School next year in a debate for the Stanford trophy cup. The trophy was won from Alameda at the beginning of the year by the school now holding it. The present team is a very strong one and its members are all polished debaters.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—Under the direction of the Rev. Gleason and Mulligan, a mission is being held during the week at St. Joseph's Church, San Antonio avenue and Chestnut street. Services are held every morning and evening. The attendance thus far has been exceptionally large.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—V. P. Warden was arrested last night by Officer Rogers for drunkenness and confined in the city jail awaiting sentence.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—Charles Magagnoli, who is engaged in the photo supply business in this city and Oakland, has received a peculiar communication from a man whom he knew here years ago and who is now in Mexico, which runs as follows:

"Dear Friend Charles: Heard you were running a photo business in Oakland. Tell me, suppose I come up and help you in the gallery, do you think you could locate me some nice girl whom I might induce to change her name and come back here with me?"

"I've got a good home and business, but I need a wife. Can you help me, for old time's sake?"

ALAMEDA, October 12.—Miss Mabel Hadley, sister of Night Sergeant of Police Ed Hadley, has returned from an extended trip in the East and in Canada. She has been away fourteen weeks and during her journey visited nearly all the principal cities, besides spending several days at the World's Fair.

HE STOLE FRIEND'S WIFE.

Shameless Conduct of Young Woman From the East.

Confessing her unholy love for a man who has abused her, and preferring to live with him as a wife, young and pretty Mrs. D. I. White has deserted her husband and, until last night, occupied apartments at the Rochester House in this city with Max Welder, a newspaper solicitor.

Meanwhile the deserted husband is in San Francisco, acknowledging that he still loves his wife, despite what she has done, and declaring that he would kill the wrecker of his home were it not for the fact that it would make his wife unhappy.

Back in Toledo, Ohio, a year ago, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. White had a pleasant little home and were happy in the enjoyment of their love. Then came Max Welder, a newspaperman, to live with them as a boarder. With him came trouble for White. His wife seemed to have lost her affection for him and a dark cloud hovered over their home.

Finally Welder came to California alone. Then Mrs. White left her husband and joined the newspaperman in Los Angeles, where he was employed on a daily paper. There she lived with him as his wife.

Then Welder lost his position in the Southern city and came to Oakland, still accompanied by Mrs. White. The couple took up their residence in the Rochester House and also, for a portion of the time, lived in San Francisco at 227 Eddy street.

While living together here Welder and Mrs. White quarreled, and so White says, his wife was abused by the newspaperman. This resulted in a separation and then Mrs. White sent for her husband.

On his arrival in San Francisco about a week ago he found his wife at 227 Eddy street. He took her to 329 Turk street to resume their old relations. Yesterday she confessed her love for Welder and asked her husband to give her up.

"I love my wife," said Mr. White yesterday. "I would die for her. If it was not that I would make her unhappy I would kill Welder. When I threatened his life yesterday she went into hysterics. I do not think she loves him, though she says she does. I think he has hypnotized her. She was always a good woman until the unhappy day I allowed him to come and board with us in Toledo. Even after he left for California a year ago I did not suspect an thing was wrong."

"When Welder was working on a newspaper in Los Angeles I wrote my story to the managing editor and he was discharged. He is now working in Oakland and I trust my story will reach the ears of his employers and they will help me get back my wife."

When seen neither Welder nor the woman would admit or deny any of the charges which D. I. White makes against them. Both declared that they had nothing to say.

"Beyond the statement that I have done nothing that I regret I must decline to say anything," said Welder. Mrs. White made the same reply.

The couple left the Rochester House hurriedly about 11 o'clock last night, taking their own baggage. They had resided there about three weeks.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—Mrs. Elizabeth Robson, aged 85 years and a native of England, died Monday night at her residence, 861 Cypress street. She had resided in this city for the last fifteen years. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. R. J. Ratcliff.

ALAMEDA, October 12.—Charles Magagnoli, who is engaged in the photo supply business in this city and Oakland, has received a peculiar communication from a man whom he knew here years ago and who is now in Mexico, which runs as follows:

"Dear Friend Charles: Heard you were running a photo business in Oakland. Tell me, suppose I come up and help you in the gallery, do you think you could locate me some nice girl whom I might induce to change her name and come back here with me?"

"I've got a good home and business, but I need a wife. Can you help me, for old time's sake?"

"I recommend that Dr. E. M. Blake's resignation as instructor in mathematics be accepted. Dr. Blake has resigned to become professor of mathematics at the University of Arizona."

"To provide for the needs caused by his resignation I recommend that Dr. Burt L. MINISTERS RECOMMEND LONG COURTSHIP.

Methodist Clergymen Favor Legislation Prohibiting Remarriage of Guilty Partner.

CHICAGO, October 12.—After prolonged discussions lasting nearly a week, the report of the Committee on Marriage and Divorce was presented at the last moment at the closing session of the Sixty-fifth Rock River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the Evanston Avenue Church last night.

The report recommended a long courtship—long enough to test the quality of love. The importance of the permanence of the marriage tie was emphasized as having a direct bearing on human development. The committee was unanimous in maintaining that a marriage the innocent party to a divorce should be declared to be indissoluble, and never to be entered into irrevocably or unadvisedly.

The principal contention that divided the committee was upon the question of recognizing as a candidate for second marriage the innocent party to a divorce.

The decision was a compromise. A resolution was adopted to the effect that legislation ought to be adopted for the purpose of prohibiting the re-marriage of the guilty matrimonial partner to a divorcee during the life-time of the innocent party to the divorce.

Stamping a divorce as a species of selfishness the report condemned the "free lover" who "ninety-nine times out of a hundred seeks divorce that he may have more marriages."

The proper conception of matrimony was declared to be the basis of a pure and anticipatory life as well as the best foundation for a family.

The conference voted to join with other churches in an attempt to secure the enactment of uniform laws in every State.

PIEDMONT FLORAL & SEED CO., 1217 Broadway, Phone Main 603.

NEW YORK, October 12.—George Whittell Jr., of San Francisco and Miss Jessie Cunningham, a chorus girl, were married here yesterday. It is said that Whittell and the girl have contemplated marrying for more than a year, but were deterred by the interference of Whittell's father, who gave his son's former wife, who was Florence Boyce, $25,000 to consent to a divorce.

Recently young Whittell slipped quietly out of California and made his way to Broadway. The wedding followed. Even young Whittell's friends in this city didn't know of the ceremony until word of it was telegraphed to San Francisco and then sent him here when friends sought the youthful bridegroom to congratulate him they learned that he and his bride were on their honeymoon.

After young Whittell had slipped away from his bride, he received a message which said in effect that if he married Miss Cunningham he would be turned out without a cent. The son's answer to his father was the announcement of his marriage. The father then, it is said, relented, sent his blessing and started East to renew his blessing in person.

The bride is a popular and attractive young lady, endowed with more than the average amount of good looks and a large circle of friends. The issuance of the license about 8 o'clock last night at first gave rise to the belief that the young couple were contemplating a runaway match but at the Kelly home it was stated that the wedding would take place next Wednesday evening and that the matter of the license was only a portion of the young couple who went together to the license office after arranging with Deputy County Clerk Harry Baker to meet them there and issue the permit. JEALOUS YOUTH MURDERS HIS INFANT SISTER.

Boy Less Than Three Years Old, in Envious Rage, Slays
Sleeping Babe.

NEW YORK, October 12.—Jealousy on the part of a boy two and one-half years old against his baby sister, one month old, has led to the death of the latter at the hands of the boy.

The tragedy occurred in the family of Nicholas Robinson at Nyack, N. Y. Since the little girl came a month ago the boy exhibited many times evidences of jealous rage.

When attempts were made to interest him in the little one he frequently ran away crying, and once he upset the cradle.

Finally, he was left alone for a few minutes in the room where the baby lay asleep.

The boy was playing with a small bronze statue. Suddenly he cried to his mother, "Hurry. Look at the baby." She ran into the room and found the statuette covered with blood.

The baby's skull had been fractured and she was dead when the doctor arrived. At least six bruises were found on the head, all of which were struck before the mother was called.

After an inquest the coroner said:

"It was a remarkable instance of infantile crime. The boy evidently thought he had been supplanted in the affections of his parents. The latter deserve great sympathy, but I rendered the only verdict possible—that the baby was killed by her brother, whose tender age makes him irresponsible for the deed."

When asked where his sister was, after the funeral, the boy replied, "Baby has gone away."

PYTHIANS TO HAVE NEW QUARTERS

BERKELEY, October 12.—A transaction of considerable significance in the local fraternal world was consummated Monday night, when University Lodge, No. 152, Knights of Pythias, closed a lease for the entire third story of the Francis Shattuck block at University and Addison streets. The lodge members will now give up their quarters in Golden Street Hall, which they have been occupying since selling their property at the corner of Berkeley way and Shattuck avenue as soon as the new rooms are given their interior fittings.

The main lodge room in the new hall will be 20 by 27 feet in dimensions, with a banquet room 35 by 35 feet. The new rooms will be elegantly appointed and it is the intention of the Pythians to submit to other orders.

University Lodge is in an exceedingly prosperous condition, socially and financially, and their newest move will give them additional prestige in the college town.

A man doesn't believe in luck if he is having the right kind.

WANT SECRETARY FOR BERKELEY Y. M. C. A.

CALL IS ISSUED BY DIRECTORS TO A SAN FRANCISCO MAN.

BERKELEY, October 12.—Berkeley will have a live, up-to-date Young Men's Christian Association, that is if the plans of the Board of Directors are carried out. At the meeting last night two important measures were decided upon. The Board, after a very careful and conservative survey of the situation, called Assistant Secretary Jackson of the San Francisco association to be the general secretary of the Berkeley organization. The salary offered Mr. Jackson is less than he is getting in his present position and may not prove of sufficient inducement to secure him, but the opportunities offered for independent, original work in Berkeley may offset the financial loss. The association guaranteed Mr. Jackson $1200 per year and his moving expenses from San Francisco.

The other important move was the decision to form a large Advisory Board to act as financial backers and general supporters of the association. Individuals, corporations and firms will be upon the list. This Advisory Board and the Directors will attend to the matter of the secretary's salary, leaving him free to use his endeavors in behalf of the general work of the association. Nearly one-half of the salary was pledged last night by the Directors, and several well known business men and residents of Berkeley will, no doubt, soon guarantee the balance.

A splendid financial showing was set out by Treasurer Popport. The association has received in round numbers since it was organized a little over a year ago, the sum of $2,125 and has paid out $2,020, leaving the organization over $100 to the good and all debts paid. Many members are now paying up their annual dues which expire November 1. It is estimated that there will be needed about $8000 for the coming year. This amount the citizens and members of the organization can undoubtedly raise. A systematic canvass of the situation will be made in a few days by the Board in order that the new secretary will not be handicapped for means if he should accept the call.

BERKELEY, October 12.—Ben Greet, whose company recently presented "Hamlet" in Shakespearean manner in the Greek Theater, has offered a valuable prize for the best 300-word essay to be written on the play of "Hamlet." This is offered as an appreciation on the part of Mr. Greet of the way the people attended the two performances of the play.

The contest is open to all those who were present or who took part. The reward will be the temple edition of Shakespeare in 40 volumes.

The essay is to be typewritten and is to be confined strictly to the play of "Hamlet" and not the production. Each manuscript should be signed by quotation or design. It should be deposited in the manuscript box of Professor W. O. Ames in room 24, North Hall with an envelope bearing the same design as the manuscript and also the name of the writer.

The essays will be judged by Ben Greet, Professor C. M. Gayley and Professor W. B. Ames.

Judging from the great interest taken in the presentation of Hamlet and the value of the prize offered, a large number of contestants are expected to enter.

CYCLISTS OBJECT TO ORDINANCE.

FRUITVALE WHEELMEN WOULD RATHER RIDE ON SIDEWALK.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 12.—An ordinance prohibiting bicyclists from riding on the sidewalks went into effect here Monday, and on the opening day five offenders were arrested by Constable Tom Carroll.

The wheelmen are voicing strenuous objections to the measure, claiming that the street is used by the majority of pedestrians in preference to the sidewalks, and that, therefore, the bicyclist is relegated to the gutter or to unfrequented thoroughfares, providing he wishes to avoid running over someone.

It is not probable, however, that the wheelmen will take any definite action, preferring to accept the inevitable rather than to cause trouble.

WATER PROPOSITIONS ARE DISCUSSED.

Councilman Howard Makes Three Objections to M. K. Miller's Plan.

The Council met last night in Committee of the Whole to hear the proposition of M. K. Miller for supplying the city with water.

Mr. Miller made an informal verbal statement of the project, his typewriter not having been able to get a complete copy ready before the hour of the meeting.

Incidentally, Mr. Miller was asked, by Mr. Cuvelier, his opinion regarding the idea suggested by the Municipal League, of using wells to get water underlying the city.

NO CITY WELLS.

He replied he had never considered such a project save as an auxiliary plant and that it was not included in the proposition which he was about to make the Council. Neither was the plan of a salt-water supply for sprinkling and flushing purposes considered in the latest proposed enterprise.

It developed in the course of the session that the plan proposed Monday night by Councilman Dornin and that of Mr. Miller are of the same general character.

Congressman Howard expressed some dissenting views as regards the plan outlined by Mr. Miller, which, in brief, contemplates the utilization of the artesian belt of the county, the piping of water to and its distribution in this city at a cost of $4,000,000. The Council will meet again tonight.

"I think," said Councilman Cuvelier, "that my resolution of last night should take precedence. It will not take Mr. Miller long to explain that project in regard to the securing of water from under the city as was suggested by members of the Municipal League, which was in existence at that time."

Mr. Howard asked if Mr. Miller had submitted his proposition to the Council.

Councilman Cuvelier said that the proposition had been submitted last night and that it was on file with the city clerk.

Mr. Cuvelier then stated that, in a conference which was held between the executive committee of the Municipal League and the members of the Council who were on the ticket of that organization, the latter were asked to look into the securing of water from wells sunk in the city, and also a supplemental salt-water plant. He then asked Mr. Miller whether or not he considered such a plan meritorious.

AUXILIARY PLANT, ONLY.

"That matter," said Mr. Miller, "was fully explained in my report to the City Council. It was, in effect, that it was apparent no very considerable quantity of water could be developed in that manner. It was not considered as a plant as a supply for the city."

I did not counsel it in that way, but simply as an auxiliary plant. I did not consider it advisable to develop water in that manner for a rapidly growing city like Oakland."

Mr. Cuvelier asked whether or not Mr. Miller thought it would be better to give preference to other projects. "I would not advise," said Mr. Miller, "the development of 12,000,000 or more of water from within the city. I believe I so stated, that if no other source was available, a supply could be developed within the city of six or seven million gallons."

Mr. Cuvelier said he understood the Contra Costa Water Company claimed to be supplying 12,000,000 gallons daily although he admitted that that amount had been greatly reduced by the use of meters.

Mr. Miller said he considered 75 millions per capita per day as a fair estimate of consumption. Mr. Cuvelier then, again, explained his purpose in this line of questioning. All he wanted to do, he said, was to meet the wishes of the organization which had asked members of the Council to look into the matter. He thought it would expedite the inquiry to get the information in a general way. He understood Mr. Miller to hold that he would not favor a general plant of the kind suggested, but simply one of an auxiliary character.

Councilman Dornin told of a search for a water supply made by the engineers of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company from the mole into the interior of the county, and that report had been made that the water required could not be supplied, and that the quality was not good.

OFFER OF A PLANT.

Clerk Thompson then read the proposition of Mr. Miller, which was presented at Monday night's meeting of the Council, as follows:

"To the Honorable City Council, Gentlemen: Relative to furnishing the City of Oakland with a new water supply, I beg to advise your honorable body that the undersigned has a proposition to offer, viz., to develop from wells in Alameda county and deliver in Oakland, twelve millions of gallons of good, pure water per day of twenty-four hours and to construct a complete pipe system for the distribution of the water to the inhabitants of Oakland, including essential conduits, pumping plants, reservoirs, etc. The plant to be modern throughout, complete in detail, of construction of the best quality of material and workmanship, and of a capacity sufficient to serve a population of not less than 150,000 upon the basis of 75 gallons per day per capita; the price to be paid by the city of Oakland for the water in its entirety to be four million dollars ($4,000,000)."

"I shall be pleased to confer with your honorable body at your convenience with a view to entering more fully into detail and at an appropriate time will formally submit a contract for official action. Yours truly,

"M. K. MILLER."

"You say," said Mr. Fitzgerald, "that the plant would cost four million dollars. Would that include pipe distribution?"

"Yes," said Mr. Miller, "that is included in the proposition."

"There would," said Mr. Miller, "be 100,000 linear feet of pipe. My proposition is to bring 12,000,000 gallons of water from the artesian belt of the southern part of the county, to pipe it to the city, and to pipe it into the city itself, to construct two reservoirs, a complete pumping plant, and to make the property absolutely complete in every particular, the pipe-system to be made according to the plan submitted by City Engineer Turner."

"The main conduit is to be 40 inches in diameter, to be made of redwood stave pipe. We would deed to the city 450 acres, the whole plant to be constructed in a substantial manner."

"If we agree as to details, the enterprise is to be carried out along the following lines:

"First, the city is to enter into a contract with me that they will call a bond election. In case the bonds are authorized, I will then place myself under bond to develop 12,000,000 gallons of water, and will subject the wells to a test for 15 days under the supervision of the city."

"After the expiration of 15 days' run, if everything is satisfactory, the construction of the main conduit will follow immediately. During the construction, payments will be made to the extent of 75 per cent monthly."

"When the plant is completed, I will agree that the city shall take possession of the same for one year and pump the water, and, during that year, retain $750,000 of the contract price, simply to insure the permanency of the supply of water for one year. If it fails for one year, the city is to have the plant and the contractor will be obliged to make the contract good. If the supply is equal to 12,000,000 gallons per day at the end of the year, the final payment will be made."

"We guarantee the city to the amount of $500,000 against litigation. We contract to carry litigation to the extent of $500,000 and no more. That is the substance of our proposition."

"Will it be easy to establish a salt-water plant with the other one?" asked Councilman Wallace.

"My proposition," said Mr. Miller, "does not include a salt-water plant of any kind."

Mr. Howard asked if the Council proposed to listen to Mr. Miller's plan on its merits. He thought the proper time for that would be when the committee should report on all the propositions.

Mr. Fitzgerald said that he wanted to get all the information he could on the subject. He thought they ought to discuss it.

Mr. Baucus said they ought to familiarize themselves with the subject before the matter should be referred to the committee.

Mr. Howard said that the matter had already been referred to the committee.

Mr. Cuvelier wanted to know if Mr. Miller's plan included what is known as the "Niles Cone."

Mr. Miller said he did not desire to be specific as to location. His purpose, he said, was to develop in the artesian belt of the county.

Mr. Cuvelier said he understood that Dornin had bonded property in the same place.

This was denied by Dornin. Mr. Howard said that, as he understood it, Mr. Miller had not yet formulated any plan, and that when he did formulate one he would present it to the committee.

"What would be the life of wooden pipes?" asked Mr. Aiken.

"Probably a hundred years," replied Mr. Miller.

"Of what is it made," asked Councilman Aiken.

"Redwood staves," said Mr. Miller. "It varies according to the thickness of the pipe," answered Mr. Miller.

"There is a great difference in redwood," explained Aiken. "Some will last 20 years, and others will not last 5 years."

"Pipe which is laid all right," vouch-sured Miller, "will last 20 years, and have then given up as a sacrifice."

"When a redwood stave pipe is kept full of water, there is no depreciation. That is the case, is it not?" inquired Howard. Miller answered in the affirmative.

"Will it be generally under or over ground?" asked Fitzgerald.

"Underground," explained Miller. "Except when crossing creeks."

"When underground, is there any danger of collapse?" queried Fitzgerald.

"No danger whatever," replied Miller.

"ABOUT DORNIN'S PLAN." The introduction of Dornin's plan on Monday was a surprise to Mr. Miller. Had he known that it had come before the body, he would not have made his proposition of Monday to the Council.

This was because of a strong similarity which existed between his own, as outlined above, and that of Councilman Dornin, which was published in these columns yesterday. There was a suggestion of disappointment in the tones of Mr. Miller as he spoke along these lines, more especially when he referred to the conference which he had had with Mayor Olney in which the latter agreed with Miller that it would be advisable, in view of the poor condition of the city's finances, to have the proposed new water plant provided by private capital.

"About four months ago, I called on Mayor Olney and we had a general talk about a water supply for Oakland. I broached the subject of existing private capital to develop a supply for the city and we also discussed the question of the city doing the work itself, and the conclusion reached was that it was the best that could be done if private capital would under take the enterprise."

"FOUND CAPITAL." On the assurance of Mayor Olney, I undertook to find capital for the scheme and succeeded. I said that Mr. Dornin has presented practically the same proposition that I have—that is, physically, lands, wells, pumping plants, and pipe system. The only difference is as to who shall do the work. It ought not to be difficult for you to work up a scheme and determine as to who is to do the work. If the city can get more from Mr. Dornin, then Mr. Dornin's scheme is the best and one best thing you can do is to take it. There will doubtless be some litigation. If the city can be relieved of that, I stand willing to assume the task of carrying out this proposition simply because of the compensation I shall receive for the job. Mr. Dornin says that this plan would cost $3,400,000. I don't think any man can estimate within a quarter of a million."

"NILES WATER." I believe that the Niles Cone is the most available water supply and best in existence today. I believe the water is abundant. I believe 20,000,000 gallons a day can be drawn from these without in any way injuring any man's land. You know how much money you can expend. You have my influence and that of Mr. Dornin. I will agree to build up the pipe system as designed by the City Engineer. Twelve million gallons of water is considerably more than you will need for several years to come in this city. Ten per cent of the cost is represented by the land and wells."

"READY TO WORK." "I am ready to act promptly. I can have an ordinance in your hands before the next meeting if you so desire. So far as my proposition is concerned, it need not be delayed forty-eight hours."

Mr. Fitzgerald asked what about the fire hydrants in the proposition and Mr. Miller replied:

"All the fire hydrants of the city will be connected with the mains and there will be 8,000 house meters and 500,000 feet of service pipes will be sufficient to connect three-fifths of the services of the city. After considering the matter carefully, it doesn't seem necessary to pile up a mass of iron pipe for future use. It is not expected that the Contra Costa Water Company will go out of business. If the city contracts three-fifths of the services within three or four years that will be as much as may be expected. I will say this in regard to the details. It will, when completed, be perfectly satisfactory to your City Engineer. I think that is as broad as I can make it."

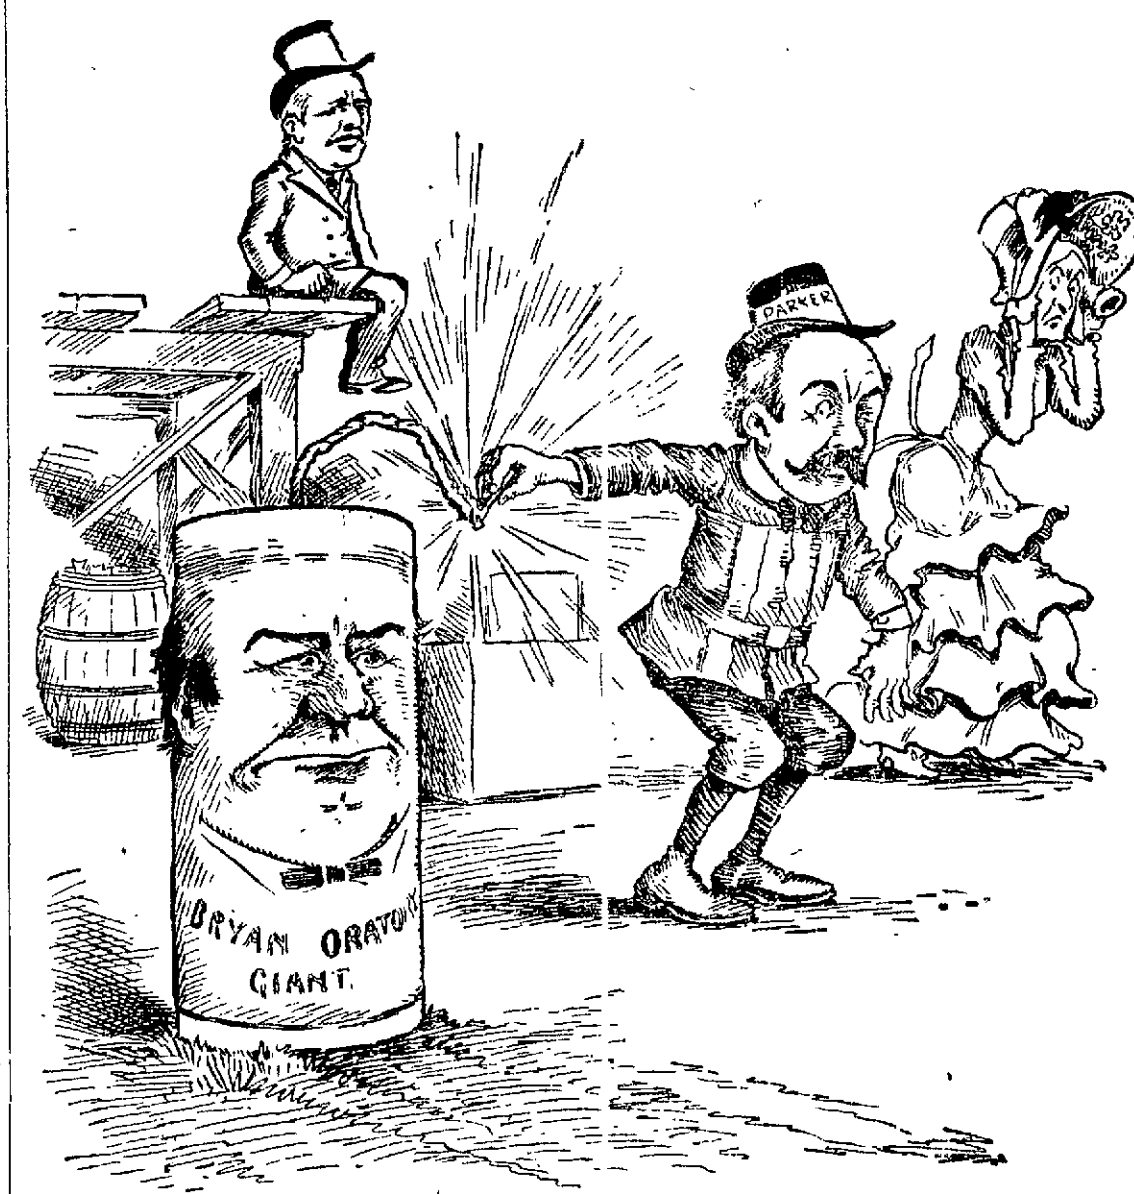

"HOWARD DISSENTS." Councilman Howard then said: "I think that, inasmuch as Mr. Miller has called the attention of this Council to the essential features of his project, I would like, in a friendly way to say a few words about the proposition."

From a business man's point of view, I take some exceptions to it. I call your attention to two or three points in the proposition as proposed by Mr. Miller. He says for the sum of $4,000,000 he would do what he offers in his proposition. It requires the city to enter into a stipulation with him in advance, and to call a bond election."

"The city is to pay from time to time certain sums as the work progresses, and when the plant is completed it should pay $3,000,000, leaving $1,000,000 to be paid in one year."

"I have called Mr. Miller's attention to three objections. First that the city would advance the money out of bonds."

"Second—After the city had invested this money, it might turn out that, after the fifteen days of test had expired, the water supply might not be steady for 365 days. There would be no assurance of a steady supply.

"Third—There is no assurance that the city could appropriate the water and send it to Oakland. I suggested to Mr. Miller that he should formulate a plan something like the proposition of the Bay Cities Water Company, which provides for a plant which is completely paid for, and over which there could be no litigation."

"I think that this Council will have to guard itself very closely in this matter."

"I have had some experience in the artesian belt. Where we had a flow of two inches above the ground we are now down to a depth of 25 feet, to get the lift. The proposition is this: The City of Oakland must invest its $4,000,000 before it can know that there is a continuous supply."

Mr. Miller says he will guarantee the city against $500,000 litigation. That is not enough. If the courts say that we may not take the water, then we have no supply."

"MILLER'S REPLY." Mr. Miller said: "Vested interests will fight hard against a proposition such as we propose. The sum of $750,000 is a large sum of money to have tied up. If there is a hostile Council or Board of Works, there is grave trouble that we may have to encounter. The city is investing in this scheme is not buying something for nothing, but it is buying a water plant and distributing plant."

Mr. Howard said: "I would like to call attention to the fact that the Bay Cities Water Company says it will put up a bond of $1,000,000. Mr. Miller's only guarantee is against $50,000."

In response Mr. Miller said: "That is only as to the litigation. We are willing to undertake a larger bond."

MAYOR CONFERS WITH CITIZENS

A conference was held yesterday between Mayor Olney and a committee of citizens regarding the proposed change of grade on Broadway and Buller street, between College avenue and Fifty-first street.

Among the members of the Citizens Committee were Attorney Chas. E. Snook, John W. Stetson, Rod W. Church and Councilman Alex. McAdam.

The ordinance providing for the change of grade has been before the Mayor, since it was passed by the City Council on October 3, but he has deferred action on it until the residents of that neighborhood could be heard from. He stated last night that he would again take the matter under advisement, and a decision will probably be reached today.
